

I am opposed to the proposed implementation of BPL. The RF interference which is virtually guaranteed to result is unacceptable and contrary to the public's interest and safety. Many radio services will suffer if BPL is implemented as proposed. Other countries have looked at BPL and decided against it for good reason. Let's use our RF resources in a responsible manner.